Policy Title: Little Crow Telemedia Network Student Policy

Two-way Interactive Television is a means for school districts to provide low incidence courses that normally would not be offered to students due to low enrollment or lack of qualified personnel.

Because of the uniqueness of the Two-way Interactive TV, certain standards are expected of students enrolling in these courses. This policy is intended to make both the students and parents aware of the standards expected of students enrolling in such a course.

As a student taking a two-way Interactive course, I am aware that:

1. Certain standards are expected of me, as a student, and insubordination of any kind will not be tolerated. Insubordination has been defined as anything that interferes with teaching or learning in the classroom.
2. Inappropriate language or gestures will not be tolerated.
3. Because of the technology, anything I do in the classroom can be video taped.
4. Classroom procedures must be followed.
 - a) Students must sit in camera view at all times
 - b) Students must not mishandle the equipment in the classroom.
 - c) Students must follow all other rules as specified by teacher.

The following procedures will be followed for students who choose not to follow the above procedures.

First Offense: The student will be given a verbal warning and told that his/her parents will be notified by letter of the infraction. The classroom teacher will send the letter to the parents. A copy of the letter will also be sent to the student's principal.

Second offense: The student will be removed from the class, this may result in no credits for class.

SEVERE MISCONDUCT: If the first offense was of major disruption, procedure for the second offense will be initiated.

I hereby authorize and give consent for the LCTN to record and playback any likeness, image, voice or performance and any and all materials furnished by me on film, tape or otherwise during this school year. I give these rights freely and without compensation now and in the future.

I have read and understand the policy above, and agree to everything stated.
